needs. Local government is the closest to the people, and as such, has a unique ability to connect with people. I recall the Mayor describing Bloomington as not only rapidly diversifying, but having a "diverse diversity". Bloomington is changing, and I believe the City Council has a real opportunity to respond in thoughtful, innovative ways to the challenges we face. I believe I could provide, as a young person, and Bloomington native, as someone active and knowledgeable in government, a new voice, and a vision that could rely on our past successes, but also build a future that Bloomington will be proud of.

June 28, 2016

Mayor Gene Winstead and Bloomington City Council
Bloomington Civic Plaza
1800 W Old Shakopee Rd
Bloomington, MN 55431

Mayor Winstead and Councilmembers,

My name is Nathan Coulter, and I am applying for appointment to the City Council seat left vacant by Councilmember Abrams' resignation. I believe my experience in government at the state and local level, my passion and work ethic, as well as my roots in Bloomington, make me uniquely qualified for this position, and I would be honored to serve my city.

For the past three and a half years, I've worked as a legislative assistant for Senator Melissa Wiklund. This position has afforded me the opportunity to work on a variety of policy issues (in particular, education, health care and human services, and state and local government), as well as issues specific to her district. As a result, I have had direct interaction with several levels and departments of state government, as well as the governments of the cities of Richfield and Bloomington. This experience has also given me an insider's view of the legislative process, and how laws, including budgets, are made. Additionally, my service on both the Bloomington Housing and Redevelopment Authority Board, and the Board for the Perpich Center for the Arts, have given me a significant diversity of government experience. This knowledge would allow me to hit the ground running and to serve the people of Bloomington well.

My work, professionally and as a volunteer, has shown me that a strong work ethic is crucial in nearly any capacity, but particularly so for a public official. Having worked on several campaigns, and for Sen. Wiklund for four legislative sessions, I am accustomed to working long and late hours, and I have gone the distance. I have also seen the results of those labors, including budget line items, policy provisions, and bonding projects that became law. I am able to do this because of my passion for public service, and this is particularly true where my hometown of Bloomington is concerned. I have lived here my entire life, am a proud product of Bloomington Public Schools, and when my now-wife and I were looking, we knew that Bloomington was where we wanted to make our home. I feel extremely lucky to have grown up in a community that afforded residents benefits like low crime, well-maintained roads, a fine public school system, and well-run city government. That is still true, but our community is changing. I recall Mayor Winstead referring to Bloomington as not just diversifying, but doing so with a "diverse diversity" – referring to the fact that changes in Bloomington's population are coming from several different racial/ethnic backgrounds and socio-economic statuses. That is a very apt description. Our city is at a very dynamic place in its history, and these new changes require leaders with a vision for where our city will be in the coming years and beyond. The times also demand leaders with a keen understanding of where we have come from, and what Bloomington has meant to those who have lived here. I believe that my experience, vision, and roots in our community would be great assets to the Council and the city as a whole. I am also eager for the chance to learn and dive into the challenge of governing. In short, I am ready to get to work.

Sincerely,

Nathan Coulter

June 20, 2016

Mayor Gene Winstead & City Council
Bloomington City Hall
1800 West Old Shakopee Road
Bloomington, MN 55431

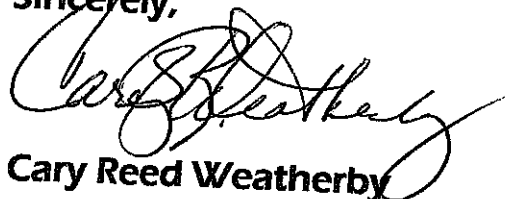

Dear Mayor Winstead and City Councilmembers:

Enclosed please find my application for the appointment to the City Council seat vacated by Cynthia Abrams. My resume is also attached for your review.

Although my City Government experience is limited, I am a quick study and am very confident in my ability to understand and evaluate issues fairly and thoughtfully. I have lived in Bloomington for 30 years and am proud of how our city has been governed. I would like to have the opportunity to positively contribute to the continued growth of our community.

I appreciate your consideration for this appointment.

Sincerely,

Cary Reed Weatherby

Address	8549 Irwin Rd #333 ^{Zip} 55437	Position	Executive Director + Founder
Home Phone	612/710-4464	Business Phone	952/888-7708

EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE As applicable to task force membership.

I graduated from the University of Missouri-Columbia in 1979 with a BSBA in Finance with a Real Estate Minor. I worked as a Construction Coordinator and Project Manager with various developers from 1979-1991. In 1991, I chose to stay at home with my children until 2003 when I began work on forming Companies to Classrooms, a 501(c)3 nonprofit which opened to serve teachers in 2006. I have been the Executive Director since that time and is my current occupation.

CIVIC PARTICIPATION

Please refer to attached resume. City of Bloomington civic participation:

Charter Commission member since 2004

Hyland Greens Task Force 2015/2016

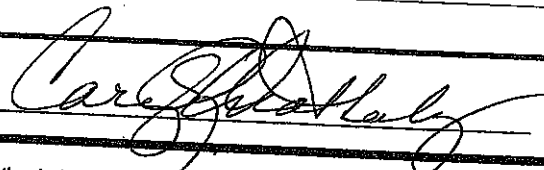

BACKGROUND AND INTERESTS

My background is in construction and real estate and most recently the creating and operating of a nonprofit. I enjoy planning projects and seeing them through until completion whether it is planning a vacation, mentoring a high school senior or building a nonprofit. I am very detail oriented and make sure I produce the best possible outcome. I enjoy being involved and working with others towards a common goal.

WHY DO YOU WISH TO BE APPOINTED?

I have been a Bloomington resident for 30 years and wish to help maintain the quality of life that we enjoy in Bloomington. Much of that quality comes from our city government. However, I am concerned about the curb appeal of some of our neighborhoods; especially the impression we give visitors as they approach Bloomington along the 494 corridor from the airport. With my background in construction and finding funding for a nonprofit, I could contribute positively to the efforts to improve our neighborhoods.

BACKGROUND AND INTERESTS

I grew up around city government - my father has run a city since I was age 7. My current position at the University of Minnesota involves working with and supporting the Board of Regents, which gives me an appreciation of the difference between governance and management. In addition, I have closely followed our city council's work since moving to Bloomington and am up to speed on the current issues.

WHY DO YOU WISH TO BE APPOINTED?

I seek this opportunity because I believe good, smart people are needed to step up and lead our community, with broad perspective, vision, and an eye toward the future. As a parent and homeowner, I am invested in the long-term success of our community. I would bring another perspective to the council, including that of the type of young, diverse families we need to attract to keep Bloomington vibrant.

June 13, 2016

Mr. Jamie Verbrugge, City Manager
City of Bloomington
1800 West Old Shakopee Road
Bloomington, MN 55431

Dear Mr. Verbrugge:

I am pleased to submit this letter with my affidavit of candidacy and application for the vacant at-large seat on the Bloomington City Council. My materials are attached for your and the Council's review. I am putting my name forward for consideration because I believe that we need good, smart people who are motivated to work to keep our community strong. In a time when individuals with narrow agendas or scores to settle are increasingly finding their way into positions of leadership, I have decided to step up and serve as someone driven to make things better. Simply put, I believe I am applying for all the right reasons.

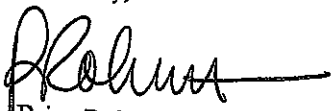

People know me as someone who builds connections, nurtures relationships, and communicates in ways that are clear and easy to understand. I have a reputation as being effective and getting things done, and am not afraid to consider new approaches to old problems. Anticipating needs, along with my ability to review situations and operations from multiple perspectives and respond appropriately, remain key components of my professional success. These would be critical skills in being an effective, successful city councilmember.

This past year, I was a candidate for the Bloomington School Board. I have long envisioned myself in some sort of public service, and thought the school board would be a good match given my educational background. Through that campaign process I had a chance to learn a lot about our city and meet with scores of Bloomington residents. While I did not have the name recognition that other candidates did, my message was well received and people appreciated that someone was stepping up and believed in the future of our city. In fact, one woman went out of her way after the election to hand-write me a letter expressing her gratitude for my approach and encourage me to run again because, in her words, people like me are needed in public office. As I considered how what I had learned might apply to this vacancy, I spent many hours visiting with leaders in Bloomington's business, hospitality, and healthcare sectors. This time has given me a deeper appreciation of the symbiotic relationship between our business and residential interests – something that is critical for someone hoping to serve in an at-large capacity. We all do better when we all do better.

One of the advantages of growing up in a home where my father managed a city and having held senior positions at public institutions myself is that I understand the importance of high-level work, professionalism, and discretion that reflect upon the office. I believe my experiences, talents, and people skills make me uniquely prepared to join the Bloomington City Council, and would hope to serve for many years.

Thank you for considering me for the vacancy on the City Council. If you are in need of any additional information, do not hesitate to ask. I look forward to hearing from you to explore how we might work together for the advancement of our city.

Sincerely,

Paige Rohman

EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE As applicable to task force membership.

Assistant Professor of Public Health at University of St. Thomas (2015-Present); Assistant Professor of Public Health, University of Minnesota, Rochester (2011-2015); Research Scientist, University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, Center for Public Health Education and Outreach (2010-2011); Postdoctoral Fellow, Office for Equity and Diversity, University of Minnesota, Twin Cities (2008-2010).

CIVIC PARTICIPATION

As an educator I am very committed to my involvements in activities that promote health and health education, and serve to improve quality of life. In university settings I have been involved with faculty governance and making informed decisions on behalf of colleagues, students, and beyond. I have also been active with organizations such as the American Public Health Assoc., Rochester Diversity Council, Assoc. of Black Women in Higher Educ., and others.

BACKGROUND AND INTERESTS

I am a native Minnesotan - born in Minneapolis, raised in Richfield and Hopkins, and chose to buy a first home in Bloomington. I attended the University of Minnesota where I earned three degrees in Biology (BS), Epidemiology (MPH), and Environmental Health Science (PhD). I have a love of life long learning and enjoying our beautiful summer months, which always seem too short in Minnesota!

WHY DO YOU WISH TO BE APPOINTED?

Bloomington is a great place to live, and I look forward to the opportunity to be involved with making decisions on behalf of my community that promote health and quality of life for all of us. Those of us who work in public health know that thoughtful policies, whether health-related or not, have the potential to greatly improve health on the population level. As such, I would bring to the board a commitment to making informed and thoughtful decisions on all policy matters, as well as a particular expertise in health-related matters.

Mayor Winstead and Members, Bloomington City Council
Bloomington City Hall

Honorable Mayor and Councilmembers:

Please find my attached application for consideration for appointment to fill the remaining term of the city council seat being vacated.

While I am a relatively new resident of Bloomington (having moved here from South Minneapolis in August, 2015), I can claim a long relationship with the City of Bloomington dating back to the 1970s when I was a police officer and fire fighter for the City (then Village) of Burnsville, and we often worked with Bloomington public safety officers. By 1975, I had moved on to the City of Richfield Public Safety Department in a command capacity, where my interactions with Bloomington staff increased considerably, primarily through visiting the old Hennepin County Court offices in the old city hall and working with former city officials Jim Brekken and John Pidgeon on early projects that resulted in the implementation of the region's 9-1-1 system in 1982. Later, while serving as a department head in Minneapolis city government (1985 - 1994) I worked closely with former police chief Bob Lutz (with whom I also worked in Minneapolis) and former City Manager Mark Bernardson, as well as Jean Guthrie from the police department. In Minneapolis I made the acquaintance of Ulie Seal (then with the MFD) and later Bloomington's fire chief.

Now, after 24 years as a worker and manager in Minnesota city government (with a couple years of State employment mixed in for good measure), I would be thrilled to participate in the higher level policy research and development responsibilities facing the City Council. I believe my public sector background, as well as my subsequent 20+ years in the private sector as the co-owner and a manager of a highly successful business, combined with dozens of consulting retainers to cities and counties throughout the U.S.A. would enable me to serve Bloomington residents well.

I was born and raised in a suburb (St. Louis Park), and I now serve as an elected Trustee on the Board of the St. Louis Park Historical Society. This service was preceded by a term as an elected Board Member on my neighborhood association in Minneapolis, and in both roles, as well as through my government employment, I have learned that good things do not just happen in a well run city and a well run metro area. They come together with the collaboration and commitment of hard working, competent, caring and diverse communities of interest. I have certainly observed that truth in action in Bloomington, and would be thrilled to contribute to its continuation.

Sincerely,

Paul D. Linnee

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

2008: Awarded "Life Member" status by the Association of Public Safety Communications Officers (APCO)

2005 to present: Principal in my own firm (Emergency Communications Strategies) engaging in consulting services to:

- ▶ County and city governments dealing primarily with issues surrounding the organization, management, funding, governance and potential consolidation of 911 dispatch centers, as well as the planning and acquisition of large, regional shared trunked radio systems.
- ▶ The legal community, as an expert witness in cases where analysis, timeline and decision reconstructions are required in litigation flowing from the processing and dispatch of 911 calls and related issues.

1996 – 2005: VP & Consulting Services Director, GeoComm Corporation: Overall management and expertise, sales and project coordination work, serving as Managing Consultant on numerous large wired and wireless Enhanced 911 and public safety communications projects for a firm with 80+ employees and $10,000,000+ in annual sales. Retired in 2005. Currently: Member, GeoComm Corp. Board of Directors.

1997: Awarded 9-1-1 Emergency Number Professional ("ENP") certification: By the National Emergency Number Association (NENA) after completing an exhaustive testing process and receiving the highest score. Subsequently qualified for ENP Certification renewal in 2002 and 2007, and awarded ENP-R (retired) status in 2010.

1996 to now: Consultant, Emergency Communications and 911 Incident Issues: Service to a variety of clients on design and implementation of Enhanced 911 and public safety radio systems. Clients included GeoComm Corp. of St. Cloud, MN (a 911/radio and GIS mapping consulting firm of which I later became part-owner); Douglas Co. NE (Omaha); St. Clair Co. IL (East St. Louis); State of Virginia Wireless 911 Board, for whom I managed an 18 county wireless 911 implementation project; MCImetro (MCI's local competitive dial tone arm) and Winstar Telecommunications for whom I did E911 network design engineering and political/operational interface for integration of their local loop service to existing E911 networks.

1994-96: Telident, Minneapolis, MN: Director, Industry Relations: Manage industry relations for a $2 million emerging technologies company specializing in telecommunications and data services for the Enhanced 911 and public safety communications marketplace, including CAD, Law Enforcement and Fire Records, Jail Management, Digital Video Imaging and a broad range of Private Safety Telecommunications products and services directed at the PBX and Centrex user market. Solely responsible for development, market research, advertising and vertical marketing of a new subscription service for simultaneous broadcast voice & pager notification.

1985-1994: City of Minneapolis, MN: Director, Emergency Communications (911): Department head status in city government, providing overall management and direction to the $4.3 million annual budget Department of Emergency Communications providing 911 call answering, police and fire dispatching for the entire city of 400,000, handling 800,000 calls for service per year and dispatching 450,000 police, fire and EMS events annually. Supervised 100+ staff and 13 subordinate managers. Designed and implemented major CAD (Computer Aided Dispatch) system, 800 MHz. trunked radio, 220 device Mobile Data Terminal (MDT) System. Elected and re-elected as Chair of Metro 911 Telephone Board's Operations Committee. Primary initiator of Twin Cities Regional 800 MHz. trunked radio system task force, whose work resulted in the implementation in 2000 of the largest integrated local governmental trunked radio system in the USA, known as the Minnesota Metro system.

1975-1985: Richfield, MN, Public Safety Dep't. Director, Administrative Services Division head in 100 member full service public safety organization with police, fire, emergency preparedness and inspections divisions. Overall responsibility for budget, physical plant, purchasing, city-wide communications, data processing, 911 system design and acquisition, dispatching and records. Designed and implemented a rudimentary CAD and records system as early 1978. Major involvement in design and implementation of total Metro E911 system in 1982.

1973-1975: MN Governor's Crime Commission. Team Leader, Police Planning: Leader of a 4 person Police Planning Team which solicited and then reviewed and monitored grant applications and funded projects for $4 million in annual federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA) grants.

1970-1973: Burnsville, MN, Public Safety Dep't. Police & Fire Supervisor I: Police patrol officer and firefighter in fully consolidated suburban public safety department until 1972 when promoted to Police Sergeant and Fire Captain. General police and fire response and supervisory duties. Implemented Minnesota's first full time Crime Prevention Officer position.

EDUCATION: Graduated University of Minnesota, B.A. (Journalism & Communications), 1970 Licensed and certified (State of MN) as a Police Officer from 1970 until retirement in 1994.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES: 40 year "Life Member" and former officer of Minnesota and International A.P.C.O. (public safety communications professional association). Member, APCO's National 911 Committee; President (3 terms) of the MN Chapter of NENA (National 911 group). Member of a variety of other public safety organizations.

SKILLS AND STRENGTHS: Experienced and successful sales experience to local government. Experienced and successful consulting management of large land-mobile communications system projects for local and regional governments:

- Consultant to Scott County, IA (Davenport & environs) on long range radio system plan development.
- Consultant to Cook Co. (Chicago) IL on local government interoperable communications planning
- Lead Consultant to Lubbock County, (Lubbock) TX on study of merging 5 911 dispatch centers.
- Lead Consultant to Stark County, (Canton) OH on study of merging 11 police, fire and 911 dispatch centers.
- Lead Consultant to Montgomery Co. (Dayton) OH on study of merging seventeen 911 dispatch centers.
- Lead Consultant to City of Atlanta/Fulton County GA 911 on a 911 dispatch consolidation study
- Lead Consultant to Omaha/Douglas Co. NE $19 million 20 channel digital, P25 trunked radio system
- Lead Consultant to St. Clair County, IL (East St. Louis) on a 10 site, P25 digital trunked radio system as well as the implementation of the USA's 1st Wireless Enhanced 9-1-1 (Phase 2) system.
- Managing Consultant to Anoka Co. MN on a 9 site, 10 channel add-on to Minnesota Metro radio system
- Lead Consultant to Washington Parish, LA 911 district on merging of three 911 dispatch centers.
- Managing Consultant to St. Cloud/Stearns Co. MN on a 5 channel 3 site add on to the MN Metro system
- Lead Consultant to Mid America Regional Council (Kansas City regional planning agency) for Assessment of Public Safety Communications Interoperability and Recommendations.
- Lead Consultant on 911 dispatch merger studies for Merced and Tulare Counties in California.
- Lead Consultant: St. Louis Co., MO on pre-planning $85 million county-wide 700 MHz trunked radio system.
- Lead Consultant, Long Beach, CA studying the merger of separate police & fire 911 centers and operations.
- Lead Consultant: State of Minnesota, Conduct assessment and prepare report on performance of regional 800 MHz trunked radio system during 8/1/2007 Interstate 35W freeway bridge collapse incident.

Well developed "public process" facilitation skills geared at enabling non technical public entity user groups to understand the technologies and public policy aspects of such technologies as shared, regional voice and/or data radio systems, and to be effective participants in their planning and implementation. Also, experienced in research into and testimony on complex legal matters relating to the electronic and procedural processing of emergency communications dispatch events. Well received public speaker, presenter and instructor, considerable court testimony experience. Widely published author of numerous articles in professional journals. (APCO Bulletin, NENA News, 911 Magazine, Dispatch Monthly, etc.) Also author of widely sold (in public safety circles) book "ICK! I Hate Technical Stuff" which is renowned for explaining highly technical public safety communications issues and technologies to "lay" audiences.

PERSONAL:

- Resides with wife of 47 years (Jane) in Bloomington, MN to which we moved (from South Minneapolis) in 2015 to be closer to our daughter and grandchildren, who also reside in Bloomington.
- Very interested in local, regional and statewide current events and the intricacies of governance.

CIVIC PARTICIPATION

- I have clients in Bloomington that I assist with hiring, coaching and training to attract and retain effective employees at all levels that will maintain organizational strength.
- I have participated in and promoted neighborhood events since moving to Bloomington in 1994.
- I have worked with Normandale Community College to strengthen leadership and keep the College strong.
- I have volunteered at Bloomington schools and sporting events.
- I promote Bloomington as a great place to work and live all over the Twin Cities.

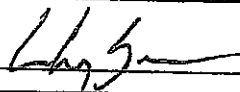

BACKGROUND AND INTERESTS

I grew up in California, moved to MN in 78, lived in Australia in 82, came home to MN in 83 and have happily stayed ever since. I am married and have enjoyed raising a son, traveling around the World, participating in sports such as kayaking and paddle boarding, cooking, spending time with friends and family and exploring the communities in MN. I am a licensed psychologist and currently am working towards a Doctorate in Forensic Psychology.

WHY DO YOU WISH TO BE APPOINTED?

I wish to be appointed to the Bloomington City Council to find out how I can make a difference in a new role for a community in which I love being a part of. I love living in Bloomington as it has so much to offer and although I pictured myself moving several times, I don't want to leave this City. I have worked with many cities, counties, and government agencies including State Commissioners in MN and other states for many years. Personally and professionally, I try to find solutions to issues that provide everyone something positive. Over my 27 years of working with "interesting conflictual" Councils, I am excited at the possibility of working with such a professional and effective Council in Bloomington!
